

Declaration of ActiveMoors.com

Executive Administrator's Duties & Responsibilities

The first Moorish American Online Social Community/ ActiveMoors.com brought to fruition on April 2nd 2009 by Jonathan Bey (of Gainesville, FL) belongs to and is the sole property of The Moorish American Community, out of which voluntary operational funds and voluntary administrative stewardship is provided by said community.

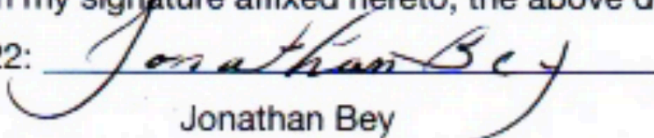

A key social infrastructure component accessed via ActiveMoors.com's home page is its important companion component, the Live Moorish Meeting Venue and free online social telecommunication networking platform PowWow (ActiveMoor's proprietary videotelephony,) sometimes also referred to as video-conference or video-conferring platform which comprises a first-of-its-kind Moorish Technologies created by AMTG (ActiveMoors Technology Group) for the global reception and worldwide transmission of audio-video signals by and between Moorish users in different geographical locations, as a means of safe, secured and free online Internet communication between Moorish Groups/Organizations and Individuals in real time independently unhampered by any third party intrusion.

The singular and sole administrative responsibility with full oversight powers of all activities of both platforms (ActiveMoors and its companion telforum platform PowWow) was a duty voluntarily accepted and still currently held by its Senior Administrator, Michelle Denise Talbot Bey.

With my signature affixed hereto, the above declaration is formalized on March 25,
